

Mathew Kenneally for Parliament? comes to Canberra!

Fresh from a sell-out season at the Melbourne Fringe Festival, Mathew Kenneally's award-winning show is coming to Canberra. In Mathew Kenneally for Parliament? Mat and his audience form a new political party for him to lead to victory at the upcoming Federal election.

Kenneally is a man who thinks he knows everything and has the arrogance to back it up. He will – in just 55 minutes – renegotiate all of Australia's bilateral trade agreements; add a preamble to the Constitution, in Mandarin; and develop a plan to send the first kangaroo to the moon. No policy platform, politician or political party will be safe from his Blowtorch of Wisdom.

An ex-Canberran, Mat started his stand-up career in the nation's capital, and is thrilled to be returning with his successful new show.

“a whip-smart, funny and gifted spin-paramedic”
– Helen Razer, The Age
